

Full Military and Police Action Set For Green Shirts

Brazilian Fascist Movement Doomed as the President Decrees Stern Measures Against Revolvers

500 in Jail

Arrest of Others Expected as Government Plans to Destroy Movement

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, May 12 (AP)—Brazil's strong man president, Getulio Vargas, invoked full military and police action today to wipe out forever Fascist Green-shirts, whose three and one-half hour rebellion failed because they did not know the government palace was without a garrison.

Police, with 500 of the rebels already in jail, spread through the city, searched every suspected Fascist's home, made more arrests and found evidence the revolt was well planned but without coordination.

They pressed a nation-wide search for the fugitive Plinio Salgado, head of the Greenshirts and allegedly the "intellectual leader" of yesterday's abortive uprising. Salgado has been in hiding for several months.

The government launched an inquiry and it was expected decrees would be published authorizing summary trial of the captured leaders.

The rebels made their attack yesterday morning against President Vargas' Palace, the residence of the chief of staff of the army, and other strategic points—but they lacked the one vital piece of information that could have carried them to at least momentary success.

No Palace Garrison

J. Alberto Lins De Barros, former charge d'affaires who helped defend the President's palace, said:

"I believe the attackers did not know the palace was completely without an internal garrison, otherwise they would have advanced into the palace instead of fighting in the gardens," he said.

"The truth is the President's life was in imminent danger."

Vargas, with his 22-year-old daughter, Doana Alzira, and only five others were inside ready to fight off the attackers from palace windows, but fighting outside apparently convinced the rebels they faced a strong body of defenders. Arriving reinforcements saved the palace and the attackers capitulated.

Vargas, his position as dictator apparently strengthened, invoked martial law to carry on punitive action against the revolt which ended at 5:30 a. m. yesterday, with 12 dead and 22 injured.

The 500-odd already in jail faced military and police court trial within 24 hours, with death sentences likely at least for the chiefs.

Quiet Today

Except for the soldiers and police moving through the streets in small detachments, there was little to indicate today that anything untoward had occurred.

Police took pigeons from several houses, and said these were intended to carry news of the Brazilian insurrection into the interior—so fascist colleagues in turn could revolt and endeavor to carry the movement to a national coup d'etat.

A large number of grenades and bombs also were found, but officials said terrorist attempts of the Greenshirts did little damage. One large bomb exploded in the national security tribunal quarters and another at the national telegraph headquarters, field commander of the rising, was in jail.

The Greenshirt political organization was outlawed after Vargas assumed authoritarian control of the nation last November 10, but it was allowed to continue social activities.

Police Escort Workers

Detroit, May 12 (AP)—Police escorted 320 workers through picket lines today to reopen the plant of the American Brass Co., closed since April 13 by a strike called by the Mine & Smelter Workers' Union (CIO).

Whooping Cough

Health Board Rooms Crowded as Children Get Injections to Prevent Disease

The Board of Health rooms at the city hall were filled with women and children this morning as Dr. L. E. Sanford, health officer, held another in the series of free clinics for the prevention of whooping cough. The average attendance at these clinics is from 18 to 20 children.

The clinics are being held on Monday and Thursday mornings each week at 9:30 o'clock.

In order to immunize a child from whooping cough it is necessary for the child to receive three injections of the state whooping cough serum, each injection being received at intervals of several days.

Not only are children who have not had the whooping cough being immunized, but children already afflicted are receiving the serum as it eases the attack.

Wounded in Revolt

General Eurico Gaspar Dutra (above), Brazilian minister of war, was slightly wounded in the brief revolt of "Green Shirts" against the administration of President Getulio Vargas. Many were killed, and hundreds were arrested during the uprising in which President Vargas personally led his household staff against the raid of "Green Shirts."

U. S. Bluejackets Patrol at Kulangsu To Help Refugees

Japanese Report Complete Occupation of the Amoy Island—Foreigners Reported Safe

Shanghai, May 12 (AP)—American Bluejackets today patrolled the small international settlement on Kulangsu Island, off the South China coast, as thousands of refugees and soldiers poured in after Japanese naval forces captured nearby Amoy.

The Japanese reported complete occupation of Amoy Island, including the City of Amoy, important port 600 miles south of Shanghai. All foreigners were said to be safe.

At the same time the Japanese reported new gains on the Shanghai front, where fully a dozen columns were moving steadily toward the Lunghua railway against "stubborn" resistance.

On the left wing of this 65-mile front, the Japanese asserted they had occupied Langzhou, south of Tancheng, and only three miles from the Lunghua, and said the Chinese were in "full flight."

This is the nearest they have approached the vital east-west railroad in their five-month drive.

Two Chinese divisions fighting at Matowchen, five miles northwest of Tancheng, were said to have been "almost annihilated."

While Kulangsu Island, ordinarily populated by 250 foreigners and 40,000 Chinese, was reported quiet, the great influx of refugees presented an increasing problem. It was to help control the refugees and safeguard American property that the United States Bluejackets landed from the Gunboat Asheville.

The United States Destroyer Edsall left Shanghai this afternoon en route to the South China Coast for patrol duty.

The Cruiser Marblehead, according to United States authorities here, was understood to be standing by at sea between Manila and Hongkong, awaiting developments.

Japanese said small bands of Chinese still were resisting on a hill near the city of Amoy and in isolated spots in other parts of the island, which is ten miles long and three miles wide.

Cecelia Hubbard of 290 Hillair (Frede, White Plains, N. Y., is named executor.

Little Hope for Zeppelins

Washington, May 12 (AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener held little hope today for the future of Germany's lighter-than-air passenger travel, in view of the apparent failure to obtain helium from the United States.

"There will be no more passenger Zeppelin flights without helium," the veteran president of the Zeppelin manufacturing plant said in an interview.

He explained he felt "disappointed and astonished" by the continued refusal of Secretary of Interior Ickes to consent to sale

GOP Expert Would Reorganize State Finance System

Constitutional Convention at Albany Hears of Plan to Prevent Additional Taxes in Depression Years

Plan 'Has Merit'

Mark Graves Sees Value in Idea to Build Stabilization Reserve Fund

Albany, N. Y., May 12 (AP)—Reorganization of New York's financial structure, designed to prevent additional taxes in depression years, was proposed today by a Republican fiscal expert in the Constitutional Convention.

Emergency imposts would be prevented, under the program, by establishment of a "tax stabilization reserve fund" from which monies set aside in normal periods could be used during depressions for governmental purposes.

The Democratic administration's Tax Commissioner Mark Graves already has said the plan "has merit."

"If we had put away the surpluses in the early twenties," he told the convention's finance committee at an informal hearing yesterday, "I think it very likely we would not have had some of the predicaments during the depression of the early thirties."

Prof. Robert M. Haig of Columbia University, a financial adviser of Democratic Governor Lehman, termed the plan in "a highly experimental stage" but urged it be given consideration.

Moffat's Explanation

Republican Chairman Abbot Low Moffat of the finance committee, in drafting the proposals, emphasized his sponsorship "is not to be taken as either approval or disapproval of their purpose or language."

Under the major plan, the state would fix an estimated normal yearly revenue return on the basis of the average yields of a number of previous years. All revenue in excess of that figure would be required set aside in the reserve, to be used only in years when revenues fail to reach the normal.

This proposal differs in theory from another offered by Supreme Court Justice Charles Poletti, Democratic delegate and former counsel to Governor Lehman, who would have the fund made up of excess revenues over and above the budgetary appropriations for a fiscal year and disbursed in any emergency upon order of the Governor and a two-thirds vote of the legislature.

One of Moffat's proposals would "freeze" into the constitution the provision that all state revenues must be paid into the general fund, despite opposition the past few years of many Republicans and Democrats to diversion of motor fuel tax funds and motor vehicle registration revenue to that fund instead of being used for highway construction and improvement.

Other Suggestions

Among other proposals are those to:

Change the beginning of the state's fiscal year from July 1 to April 1, commencing in 1931.

Permit short-term borrowings by the state in anticipation of the sale of long-term bonds.

Prohibit the state, except as otherwise expressly authorized, from loaning or giving its credit to any individual, association or corporation, public or private.

Repeal existing obsolete sections authorizing a bond issue for the World War bonus and a $100,000,000 ten-year series of bonds for public improvements, adopted in 1925.

Prohibit submission of a bond issue to the electorate at an election at which a constitutional amendment is submitted. At present, a bond issue cannot be submitted to the people when any other law or bill is on the ballot.

Require all appropriation laws to specify the fiscal year from which the appropriation is to be made.

Peter Stuyvesant Honored by 1,450 Children at Fete

Grammar School Pupils Give Gay May Day Program on the Grounds of New York State Armory

Peter Stuyvesant Day, with 1,450 children participating, turned out to be an ideal one for the first Elementary School May Day program at the New York State Armory Wednesday afternoon. It was the first demonstration of its kind to be given in the city. Although the day was cloudy, the grayness was just enough to keep the sun from shining too brightly on the gay costumes of the children. The field was dusty and caused some slight disturbance as the many feet raised dust. Calcium chloride, ordered by the city to settle the dust for the occasion, had not arrived.

Not enough can be said of the work of preparation. It was carried out very smoothly. No detail was left unplanned for. Each teacher had a responsibility and pupils, who were not able to take part due to recent illnesses were delegated to special activities.

Under Miss Bradburn

The full management was under the direction of Miss Helen N. Bradburn, assistant supervisor of physical education, who was assisted ably by the grade teachers, the principals, and members of the federated Parent-Teacher Association. The colorful and attractive costumes were designed by and under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Dralle, art supervisor. The vocal and instrumental numbers were under the direction of Miss Anna D. Quinby and Miss Eva Clinton of the music department.

The fields were laid out by the trigonometry class of the Kingston High School under the direction of Mrs. James J. Murphy, Jr. Areas for the games and dances were marked in line by the boys of School No. 7, who were on the field early in the morning to prepare for the afternoon. Eight May Poles were under the direction of the school's color guard on the field and made a pretty setting with bouquets of lavender lilacs atop each.

Musical accompaniments for the dances and for the tumbling act were played by Mrs. Raymond H. Rignall.

At 2 o'clock sharp to the music of "Promotion" by Chennette, the Elementary Schools band, under the direction of Miss Clinton and with John Deegan, of School No. 5, as drum major, made its first appearance marching. The white skirts and white trousers, white blouses and shirts were covered with natty blue capes with light blue linings and on their heads the band members wore blue caps with white feathers. The band paraded around the field and gave a fine example of marching, met the 1,450 children and led them in the grand march around the field, three sides of which were lined by some 2,000 spectators.

The first activity was three games: Field Dodgeball, Hit Pin Baseball and Newcomb, which were played by the boys of grades 5 and 6 of Schools 2, 3 and 4. All three games were in progress on the field at once and gave an example of some of the games played by the grades in their regular activities. None of the numbers had been previously rehearsed. The games and dances were taken from the regular school activities and none of the schools had been rehearsed with the others.

Dancing Program

The first dance was the Norwegian Mountain March, in which the fifth grade girls from Schools 2 and 3 were dressed in green and orange skirts, white blouses and white caps and decorated. It was quite a sight to see so many different groups of the field at once and each set of

Kingston Business Men Discuss Many Important Matters

Boy Scout Camporee and Knights Templar Session to Be Held Here Are Discussed at Today's Meeting

Endorse Festival

Desire to See Ulster County Apple Blossom Festival Continued Next Year

Numerous matters were discussed at the postponed meeting of the Kingston Business Men's Association this morning at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Although there was a small attendance those present disposed of several important matters.

William A. Wright, Boy Scout executive, appeared before the meeting and asked the consensus of opinion as to the route of march for the parade which will be held in connection with the Boy Scout Camporee which will be held at the Armory grounds on June 3, 4 and 5. On Saturday afternoon, June 4, there will be a parade of several hundred Boy Scouts. The route of march will be announced later. A donation to assist in meeting the cost of the camp was voted by the association.

The attention of the merchants was also called by Mr. Wright to the big Camporee which is being planned for next year when some 2,000 Scouts will meet in Kingston. Plans are now being formulated for a three days camp of scouts from the Dutchess-Columbia, Orange-Sullivan, Delaware-Otsego-Schoharie and the Greene-Ulster districts. There will be a program and parade for the event. Captain Daniel E. Fox of the State Troopers, "C" Troop, has signified his cooperation and will send down a riding team to perform. Mr. Wright asked the cooperation of the business men and stated that plans would be developed as time went by in anticipation of one of the biggest Boy Scout events ever held in Ulster county. The date for the event next year has not been definitely set.

Another matter which was discussed was the decorations for the Knights Templar session and parade. It was decided that decorations for the convention should be made by the individual merchants.

Endorse 'Apple Festival'

An endorsement of the Ulster County Apple Blossom Festival was given by the Association and it was voted that the Business Men's Association should notify the general committee of their desire to see the festival continued next year with greater success.

President Jim Rowe reported that since the wires on Wall and Fair streets had been placed underground his attention had been called to a couple of wires on Wall and Fair streets which had been erected for some private use. He said the matter had been taken up with the city authorities and the wires were to be taken down so as to give a clean appearance to the streets.

The question of official store closing hours was brought up when a member asked what the official closing hours were. It was stated that the closing and opening hours on Wall street had been set some time ago and were being adhered to by most of the merchants. The opening hour is 9 o'clock in the morning and the closing hour is set for 5:30 with the closing hour Saturday night being 9:30 o'clock.

The proposition of stores remaining open on Friday night, preceding Memorial Day and July Fourth was brought up but the matter was left to a committee to ascertain the desire of the merchants. It was explained that many people would be leaving early Saturday for the three day holiday and might desire to shop Friday evening. Whether the Friday opening would be a convenience to the public was discussed and the matter was left open pending a census among the merchants.

President Rowe stated that the membership cards for paid up members were ready. These cards may be displayed by the merchants to indicate the store is listed in the association membership. The membership and finance committee was asked to continue work on securing payment of dues for the year.

The question of subscribing to many so-called charities by the merchants was discussed but no action taken. One store operator reported that one day he had been called upon by seven persons seeking donations for various causes, one of them being for support of a home in Ohio.

Other matters of routine were discussed.

$145,000 for Ulster Spears Guilty of Post Offices Listed Passing Bad Check On Federal Project Gets Jail Sentence

Two new post offices for Ulster county are included among scores of communities as eligible under a $145,000 new federal buildings program proposed in the administration's spending-lending bill, the Associated Press says today.

Under the measure New Paltz would receive $75,000 and Highland would get $70,000. Stamford in Delaware county, would be given $70,000, while South Fallsburg, Sullivan county, would get $75,000.

Cornwall and Cornwall-on-Hudson in Orange county, would come in for $70,000 apiece.

The House appropriations committee included 171 New York postoffices in a list of projects eligible for construction. The proposed program would involve an estimated expenditure of $18,857,000 in President Roosevelt's home state.

The committee explained that the postmaster general and the secretary of the treasury would select from the list the projects actually to be constructed and added the program would not be confined to the projects listed.

Chief Justice Speaks at Washington Today Asks "Vigilance" in Selecting "Good Judges" for U. S. Courts

Roosevelt View

President in Letter Says Nation Is Reshaping Legal Philosophy to Meet Needs

Washington, May 12 (AP)—Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes urged today that American lawyers be "vigilant" in seeking the selection of "good judges" to preside over the nation's courts.

The chief justice addressed the American Law Institute.

President Roosevelt, in a letter read at the same meeting, said this country was "reshaping our legal philosophy to keep pace with the needs of our people and the spirit of our institutions."

"The President also asserted that 'the seriousness of our crime problem in this country and the deficiencies of our administration of the criminal law rightly causes laymen to look to such an organization as yours to give direction and leadership.'"

Respect Is Essential

Hughes declared:

"I question if there is any greater need at this time than continued respect for the judicial tradition of independence and impartiality."

"The prime necessity in making the judicial machinery work to the best advantage is the able and industrious judge, qualified by training, experience and temperament for his office."

Without mentioning any names, the chief justice continued:

"It is the exceptions among the judges, who, with their conspicuous ineptness, do the harm, and they need such admonition as it may be practicable to give under our system."

Declaring that "the multiplication of administrative agencies is one of the outstanding characteristics of our time," the chief justice added:

"I notice that there is a tendency, in the desire to emphasize the importance of obtaining stability and expertise in particular classes of cases, to deprecate the work of the courts and by comparison to exalt administrative boards and commissions."

Short-Sighted Efforts

"Such efforts are short-sighted and are not in the interest of the suitable development of administrative agencies."

"I must be remembered that to the courts the community still looks for the standards of judicial conduct."

"Whatever the shortcomings of courts, and whatever the need of administrative bodies, it is still the courts which stand out as the exemplars of the tradition of independence and impartiality."

"So far as it is humanly possible under the conditions of Democratic organization, judges are as a class supposed to be removed from political influence, to be guided by principle and not by sentiment or passion, and habitually to adhere to the requirements of the law in a conscientious endeavor to ascertain and apply them."

"This tradition should be cherished and not weakened by disparaging the institutions which embody it."

Text of Roosevelt's Letter

The text of President Roosevelt's letter, read to the institute by William Draper Lewis, director, follows:

"I am happy to greet the judges, lawyers and law teachers who are attending the sixteenth

Jensen and Deegan New Funeral Home Ready for Service

One of the most modern of Kingston's funeral establishments is the new Jensen and Deegan home located at 15 Downs street. The property was formerly owned and occupied by the late Sylvester R. Deegan and was purchased last fall by Jensen and Deegan and was completely renovated and redecorated during the winter.

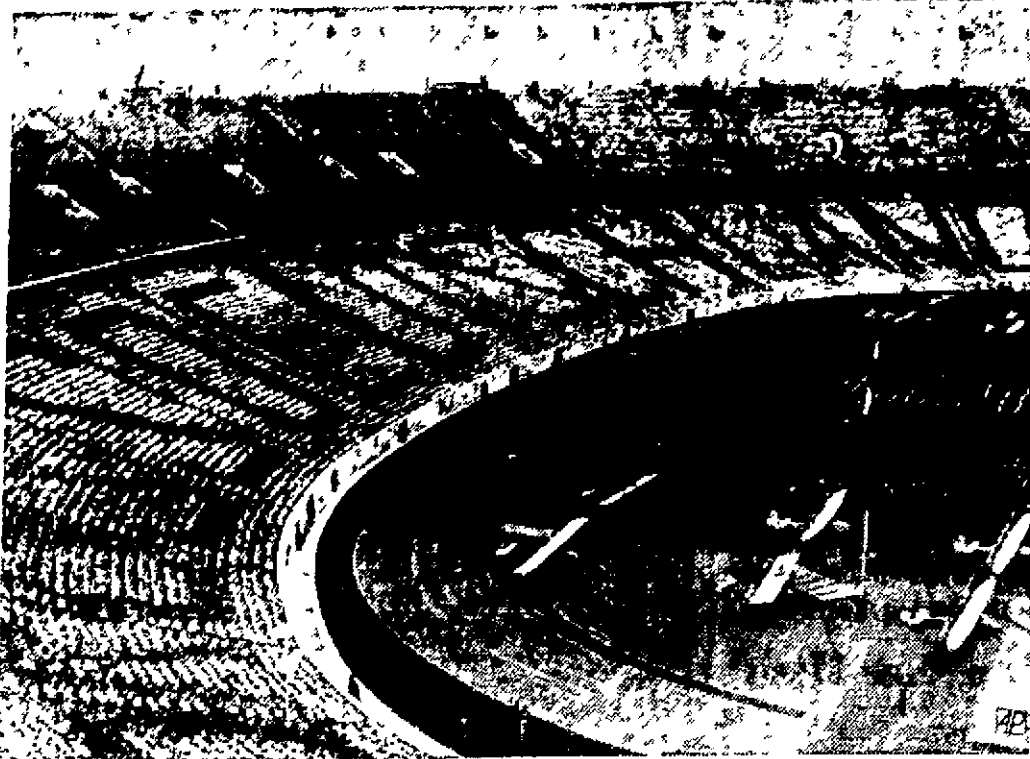

A large addition was built in the rear for the chapel and service entrance and loading platform was also added. Electric installation, automatic heat, plumbing and complete interior decoration were done by the new owners.

The new funeral home is ideal adapted for its purpose. It contains eight ceiling rooms, beautiful floors of intricate parquet design, two dropplaces comfortable furniture, and indirect lighting—all tend to create a pleasant homelike atmosphere. A thermophone color scheme throughout the house, to which the hand carved oak woodwork and beautiful leaded stained-glass windows add a touch of splendor to the interior.

Convenient Floor Plan

The front door opens into a large hall. To the left is a large and comfortable reception room, entirely separated from the rest of the house so that there can be no interference from other activities. On the right of this hall, another room equipped with a billiard table, which makes possible its elimination from the rest of the house or it can be used as a billiard room. In fact the floor plan of the home is such that no less than three services can be conducted simultaneously in a room with a billiard table and a billiard room with a billiard table. A set of indirect lighting produces a soft subdued glow which is very pleasing. The chapel is a large room with a large window looking out onto the street. ## HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those grating, nagging, painful backache people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are a nature's efficient way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They are happy pills and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Club Members Give Own Original Music At Final Meeting

Members of the Kingston Musical Society closed their season last evening with a very unusual and delightful evening spent at the home of Mrs. Antonio Knauth on Albany avenue. The evening's program was devoted to the presentation of original compositions of the members and proved most interesting and entertaining. Honorary guests at the meeting were Henry Holden Huss, noted American composer, and Mrs. Huss, who are guests of Mrs. Henry F. Dunbar of Hurley, and who came to the meeting for the express purpose of hearing the creative works.

Preceding the program Miss Eva Clinton, retiring president, conducted a business meeting and then introduced the new president, Mrs. Lloyd LeFever. Mrs. Harry Dodge of Green street was unanimously voted into membership in the society. During the business session, convention reports were made by Mrs. Morimer B. Downer and Mrs. Dunbar who, with Miss Clinton attended the Biennial convention of the Federation of Music Clubs held at Binghamton during the Easter vacation. The report of the program for the next season was made by the program chairman, Mrs. Henry Millon Jr., and Mrs. Morris Millon Jr., and the annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were given.

Before retiring from her office Miss Clinton gave the following annual report of the president. Mr. and Mrs. Huss were introduced to the club by Mrs. Dunbar and then the program of original compositions was given with Miss Holden Huss, chairman. Eleven native composers were represented on the program. It was a significant fact that of the 19 selections presented, only three were for the piano, all the others were songs.

As poetry is such an inspiration to the musician, Mrs. A. Noble Graham read a poem she had written which linked up the spirit of music in the spring time. It was a very lovely poem and may soon be set to music by one of the talented members. The following program was given. "In Apple Blossom Time" and "Waltzing with the Moon" trio for women's voices by Mrs. R. R. Gross, with the composer at the piano sung by Mrs. Gross, Mrs.

John L. MacKinnon and Miss Caroline Port. "Did You Ever Do Wrong?" Negro Spiritual by Mrs. Gross sung by the composer. "A Young Boy Starts Piano Lessons," played and sung by Mrs. Henry Millon Jr. "Mother's Day," sacred solo, sung by the composer, Mrs. R. H. Rignall, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Ellison. "Lullaby," by Miss Ethel Maurerstock, played and recited by her.

"Twilight Reverie" and "In the Heart of June" by Mrs. Mills sung by Mrs. Josephine Mortel Dederick, accompanied by the composer. "Mother Goose Rhymes" by Mrs. Walter T. Tremper, sung by Mrs. Clarence Wolfenstein, with Mrs. Tremper at the piano. "Nocturne," piano solo by Mrs. Tremper.

"Spring Arithmetic" sung and played by the composer, Mrs. M. Z. Childster. "The Sea," by Miss Clinton, piano solo.

"Tears" and "A Kiss" by Miss Clinton, sung and played by the composer.

"Sunset," written by Robert Wolfenstein, nine-year-old son of Mrs. Clarence Wolfenstein, and played and sung by his mother. "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," by Mrs. Clyde E. Wonderly, sung by Miss Margaret Howe, accompanied by the composer.

"Worship," "Mother" and "Remembrance," written by Mrs. Lester Decker and sung by Harold Bingham, guest at the meeting, who had written the words to the three sacred solos.

The program closed with selections by the guest of honor, Mr. Huss, who played a "Mileage Antique" which had many features of older music plus some of the modern harmonies. He then played his "Prelude in A Flat" and improvised delightfully on three notes of the scale selected at random by the audience.

Following the meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments. She was assisted by Mrs. Lloyd LeFever, who poured.

The islands of Sumatra and Bali were given the most attention by Miss Van Slyke who also spoke of the peculiar customs, ceremonial dances, food, and gave many intimate and interesting experiences of her trip. The program was very interesting and received much applause. The meeting next week will be given over to the conference reports.

St. Joseph's Holy Name Breakfast
Plans CompleteA large attendance is expected at the annual communion breakfast of St. Joseph's Holy Name Society to be held this Sunday, May 15, at the Stuyvesant Hotel.At this breakfast, all men of the parish are invited to participate. After the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday the men will march over to the Stuyvesant and the breakfast will get under way immediately. The Hon. John T.
Loughran, associate member of the Court of Appeals, has kindly consented to act as toastmaster.The guest speaker, the Hon. Andrew C. McCarthy, is far better known in the southern district of New York, however, than in this section of the state.Mr. McCarthy after graduating from law school entered the firm of Sugarman and McCarthy and practised law until the year 1933, when he received an appointment as a district attorney of the Bronx. It was only a short time after he had been assigned to the West Farms section of the Bronx, when the most famous criminal case in the world broke and Bruno Hauptmann came under his jurisdiction in the West Farms Court.Mr. McCarthy has always been an ardent K. of C. worker and is widely known throughout the councils of the state as a lecturer and dynamic public speaker.With such a program arranged, the committee in charge feels that the breakfast will prove to be a most pleasant and memorable event for all in attendance.Baptist CE Attends Central ConventionExactly 10 members of the Albany Avenue Baptist Christian Endeavor Society attended the Fifteenth Annual Convention of the Hudson River Central Baptist Bible School and Young People's Convention on Tuesday of this week at Beacon.After the preliminary devotional and interest groups sessions in the morning, the delegates convened in the church auditorium in the afternoon where a long business meeting took place.The initial report to be held at this session was from the nominating committee which was given by the Rev. Clarence Brown of the Wurts Street Baptist Church.The report cited that Marian Robinson and Mrs. L. Vanderhoof were unanimously nominated for the post of president to succeed Ross Browne. The delegates unanimously voted to install Mrs. Vanderhoof as president while the nominator in favor of Miss Robinson withdrew her name. The result was that the assembly voted that Ross Browne be put back into office while the remainder of the slate of officers, vice president, Dora Pratt; secretary, Marian Bradley, and treasurer, Mrs.
Nellie Klotz, were also unanimously reelected. The pastoral advisors to the officers are Edward Marlin, the Rev. Edwards, the Rev. Glenn Vought, of Nyack, the Rev. Harris and the Rev. Mr.
Brown.Following this business it was stated that next year's convention would be held in the Oak Street Baptist Church of Newburgh. This motion was unanimous.The individual business started off when the question of a combined convention as in the past or a separate one backed by the young people should take place in the future. A motion was made and seconded that a group of six be appointed to meet with the moderator to take action on this suggestion. The same result occurred when a motion came from the floor to change the day of the convention.

Evening Service

At the evening service the newly elected officers were officially ordained into office by the Rev. Albert W. Sheekels, of Middletown. The speaker of the evening was Russell H. Bishop, of the First Church of Syracuse. Mr.
Bishop is the director of Young People's activities in this state and his topic was one of the best enjoyed of the entire conference.The following represented the Baptist CE: Mrs. Chester Greene,
Doris Harvey, Audrey Greene,
Olyve Engleman, Vivian Greene,
Richard Rice, Charles Gunder,
Kenneth Chatham, Bert Streeter and Irwin Thomas.Social Security Numbers
For Summer WorkersCollege students who take part-time or temporary jobs during the summer were reminded today to obtain social security account number cards before beginning employment in an announcement by Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, Regional Director of the Social Security Board for New York State.Pointing out that coverage under Federal Old-Age Insurance includes part-time, temporary, and casual work—if the employment is covered by the Social Security Act—she advised students who have the definite assurance of summer work, or who receive offers of employment after school closes, to file applications for social security account numbers.
The applications may be obtained at any of the 22 New York State field offices of the Social Security Board.Employers of such workers must file reports of their wage records with the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Mrs. Rosenberg explained, and the workers are therefore required to report their account numbers to the employer.ENJOY YOURSELF

BLOODHOUNDS SEEK MISSING TOT

Bloodhounds from the New York state police kennels are shown near Bradford, Pa., as their handlers sought to trace the movements of Marjory West, 4, missing since she disappeared from a family picnic. A widespread hunt for the little girl continued.1862 Deed Filed Here For Jacobs Valley LandA very unique document was filed Wednesday in the office of the county clerk. It was a deed dated back to 1862 which was just being presented for record to complete title to a parcel of land which was being transferred again. The deed was one of the old forms which open like a book instead of the usual form now in use. Although brown with age the document was in an excellent state of preservation.The deed conveyed a parcel of land in Jacobs Valley, at a point now known as Cedar street. The original deed dated

Rotarians See Artist Hurt Work

John Hurt of Woodstock transformed a glass of beer into a blonde goddess for the edification of the members and guests in attendance at the local Rotary meeting in the Governor Clinton Hotel yesterday noon as the highlight of a series of humorous drawings.

Artist Hurt, with nothing more up his sleeve than a talented arm, drew a series of lines until an hour with a group of drawings that always started with a simple line or two and expanded into all manner of figures and people.

Using a lighted board on which were clipped strips of white paper several pieces of what appeared to be card-colored chalk, and the day's meeting was in Mr. Hurt started his visible lecture by drawing a black circle.

and saying that most things started with a circle anyway. A few swift strokes of black transformed the circle into an engagement ring which the artist said was also a normal procedure in life.

A couple more swift lines and the circle became a living baby and this, too, appeared to be in keeping with the orderly processes of existence.

Saying that about the only things that want to come home are pigeons, Mr. Hurt placed a couple of birds on the wing as the start of his next drawing and he drew a series of lines until the original developed into a modern young lady as a sample of a creature that never wanted to come home.

Mr. Hurt came to the club as the guest of Joseph Morgan, of the Rotary program committee, and the day's meeting was in charge of President James F. Loughran.

What we need in the United States today is less "con" and more confidence.

"Dogs," mused the Drusville philosopher, "are a good bit like wives. Even though they know what kind of a man their master is, they love him just the same."

The shades of night are not falling quite so fast as they did a month ago.

Two little fleas sat on a log and one to the other said: "I've traveled this wide world over."

But no longer will I roam, For the first darn dog That shows his head, Will be home, sweet home.

Store Manager—What do you mean by arguing with that customer? Don't you know our rule? The customer is always right.

Floorwalker—I know it. But he insisted that he was wrong.

When a man begins to put on the dog he is likely to begin to put off paying his bills.

The purchaser of a dog gets just what he pays for—just as in automobiles and radios and clothes. Mongrels come cheap, but it is impossible to breed good dogs for $10 a dozen. Good dogs, the kind of which the owner may be proud, cost more and are worth more.

A New Yorker and a Scotchman shared a cabin crossing the Atlantic. The first morning the American was amazed to see the Scot using his tooth-brush.

New Yorker (yelling)—Say, that's my tooth-brush you're using!

Scotchman—So sorry. I didn't know. I thought it belonged to the ship.

At the exhibit the public was invited to vote their choice of the pictures on display. Last night, at a regular meeting of the society in the Y. M. C. Hamilton's "Stunt Interest," a picture of a little girl and a chicken, and James Hughes' "Polar Bear" received the largest number of votes in the "Child Study" and "General Interest" classifications, respectively. However, in the "Pictorial" classification, William H. Pretsch's "Peekamoose," a view of Peekamoose Lake in the Catskills, received the greatest popular vote. Dan Smiley's

WOMAN LEARNS LORE OF WESTERN RANGE

Rides Herd With Cowboys; Is Expert on Brands.

Buffalo Gap, S. D.—When it comes to cattle lore of the Old West, identifying brands, or even riding herd on the critters, few men could compete with Queena Stewart—just plain Queena to the cowboys of the West.

Queenie rode herd with her father, the late Frank Stewart, bringing in cattle from Mexico and Texas by the thousands to graze the plains, from the time she was nine.

They didn't tolerate useless "gals" around the outposts of those days, so she just naturally had to learn brands. Today, she probably is the foremost student of brand nomenclature in the country, and has listed the 20,000 or more brands of the Dakotas in two volumes.

Besides being vice president of the Association of Secretaries of State Cattle Organizations, secretary of the Western South Dakota Live Stock Growers association, she is secretary of the South Dakota Brand commission, where one of her duties consists in helping to wipe out rustling.

Rustlers Still Active.

"There's plenty of rustling yet," she said. "The days when a man could round up a herd of cattle and hold them are gone—but with trucks and good roads, a modern cattle rustler can load his truck and be 500 miles away before the owner discovers his loss."

State inspectors have been able to check much rustling through copies of brands furnished them by Miss Stewart.

"Choosing a brand is as delicate an act as naming the new baby," she says, and points out that although humane societies have protested "branding" the animal, in reality, suffers little pain from it.

She pointed to one of the cattle on her 3,000-acre ranch. "My own brand is XI. I picked it because it's easy to 'run on.' That only means it goes on easily, and is easily seen and read."

Brand Tricks Fail.

"Rustlers have a lot of tricks to change brands, but none that would fool an expert cowman," she said. "Often they'll burn the second brand through a wet blanket to make the new brand appear old."

She asserted that the burning of the old brand causes it to heal slowly, but in spite of this, the only conclusive evidence is the skin of the dead animal, where the old brand shows up distinctly.

Miss Stewart was one of two girls sent overseas during the World war from South Dakota by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

"I did everything over there from singing with a 40-piece orchestra to dancing with the men and making doughnuts by the hundreds," she said.

Her girlhood ambition, incidentally, was not to become a brand expert. She had several years of training in voice in Baltimore and Chicago. Now, wherever she goes, she's called on to lead the community singing—and every range-nurtured raspy voice tunes in.

"Good-by" is a contraction of "God be with ye."

DEFENDANT

Mrs. Charlotte Milburn Pickering, Chesham, (above) Madison, Conn., and New York heiress, was named defendant in a $25,000 alienation of affections suit by Mrs. John B. Wright at Madison. Wright awaits trial on charges of assaulting Mrs. Wright with intent to kill.

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds

By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—There's a story behind Joan Crawford's new straight five-year contract with Metro—"straight" meaning without options—signed the other day in New York.

Joan has been taking singing lessons for several years, more or less on the quiet. Well, the matter of Joan's new contract has been in the air for some time. There were all sorts of rumors that she might leave Metro, where she'd been on the payroll continuously since 1925 when as Lucille LeSueur she got $75 a week.

Whether with contract discussions in mind we don't know, but one day Joan arranged with the studio music department to make a recording with full orchestra of an operatic aria and a couple of popular songs.

An Agent Acts

Joan's agent, Mike Levee, heard the record and went to see Louis B. Mayer, the Metro boss. Just as a favor, would Mr. Mayer listen to a voice he'd discovered? Mr. Mayer would and did—and at the end he wanted to know WHO. It seems Joan really has a voice, and if you doubt it there's that contract for five straight years to prove it. Actually, it may amount to seven years because Joan has the right to appear in three stage plays and to broadcast, and the plays would mark time out.

When Joan was just hitting stardom in "Our Dancing Daughters" one of Hollywood's reigning queens was Anne Q. Nilsson. The lissome blonde star of "Ponjola" and other films was fated to leave the screen at the height of her glory. She fractured a hip in a horseback accident, spent five years as a cripple, and five years after that traveling.

Money Enough

Met her again on the set of "Prison Farm" the other day—her first picture since the accident. She has a small role, that of a prison matron, but she is contented, alive and eager to make my acquaintance.

"Ten years make a difference," she smiled, "and I couldn't expect to play the youthful roles I once had. But one can't live in Hollywood, having once been a part of it, without wanting to work."

Money? I've enough. I had a good manager who invested my earnings wisely. My health is fine. I'm taking up golf!—she chuckled.

"That's good for reducing hips. People still inquire solicitously how I'm feeling, and seem surprised that I'm no longer an invalid. Horseback-riding? Well, I haven't been on a horse since my accident, and I can't say I'd go out of my way to meet one—but wouldn't be afraid to ride if I had it to do!"

Haile Selassie Pleads His Case To League Heads

Negus, III, Hears His Plea Read to Take Case Before Entire League Assembly—May Wreck Plans

Reign of Fear Former "King of Kings" Strikes at Selfish Motives of Individual States

Geneva, May 12 (AP)—Ethiopia's fallen Emperor Haile Selassie today demanded that the question of recognizing Italian conquest of the African empire be taken to the League assembly.

The demand of the former "King of Kings" if successful probably would wreck Anglo-French plans to recognize King Vittorio Emanuele of Italy as Emperor of Ethiopia, for the assembly includes all the members of the League, many of which are set against recognition.

Haile Selassie, too ill to speak, sat at the League Council table while his representative, Ato Lawrence Tazeez, read his speech.

After he had listened silently to Britain's foreign secretary, Viscount Halifax, announce that Britain wanted to give even his title to Italy, he told the council he had come to Geneva to "defend my people."

He explained, however, that he was "just recovering from illness" and asked permission to have his speech read.

"All the procedure that the League can command has been used to try to get Ethiopia out of this body of nations," Tazeez read in a low voice.

The statement of the exiled Emperor Haile Selassie declared that his country held not only legal but factual rights as an independent state and that Italy had by no means completed conquest of his empire.

Hits at England.

"I am sorry I do not find myself in agreement with Great Britain which has given me hospitality and France to whom Ethiopia owed its original membership in the League," the statement continued.

"Members of the League, this is a reign of fear. The states that are members of the League are each one for himself.

"They are treating up treaties of non-aggression, the League of Nations covenant and the Briand-Kellogg pact.

"Since contagion of aggression has spread throughout the world, states have permitted international morality to vanish. May God forgive them."

The statement expressed Haile Selassie's "sorrow to see the most powerful state in the world, which has never ceased to affirm its attachment to the covenant desert us in our sorrow."

France's foreign minister, Georges Bonnet, spoke when the Ethiopian statement was completed.

"Have Done All.

"We have done all we can," said Bonnet, shaking his head emphatically at the Negus who sat with his eyes closed.

He said all the members of the council were "sorrowful" over the step which "must be taken."

"The presence of Emperor Haile Selassie increases our emotion," he declared.

The Negus was dressed in funeral black. All through the session he hung his head low and kept his eyes closed as though he feared to open them and find the almost inevitable decision against him already made.

"Ethiopia continues to climb her Calvary," the emperor's statement declared through the droning voice of Tazeez.

"No humiliation has been spared her. I address a most energetic protest to the world.

"If it is true that the Ethiopian people can expect no aid from the League, Ethiopia will remain amidst you as a living symbol of a violated victim."

"It is inadmissible to sacrifice a member state for the needs of one or several other powers. Only the assembly can decide our case."

Knoxville, Tenn., May 12 (AP)—The Tennessee Valley Authority and the city of Knoxville today offered $7,500,000 for the electric properties of the Tennessee Public Service Co. Townsend Rally Was Held at Mechanics' Hall Wednesday.

The Townsend rally held at Mechanics' Hall Wednesday evening was an interesting event. The speakers were A. K. Holmes and Earl Brooks of Walton. The addresses were inspiring and informative, making clear to the good sized audience the practicality and desirability of the Townsend plan.

Between 30 and 40 new members have been added to the roll of membership in the Kingston Townsend Club during the past two weeks.

On the platform Wednesday evening were seated Dr. Carl Miller, president of the local club; Mr. Holmes, Mr. Brooks, the Rev. Mr. Abrams of Walden and R. N. Wheeler, mayor of Rhinebeck.

Representatives of clubs from nearby towns were present and plans are under way for the organization of clubs throughout the area of the Hudson river valley.

Comforters—Presbys.

Naccarato Gets A Tagged Shad

Achilles Naccarato, of 61 New-kirk avenue, fishing for shad in the Hudson river, between Rhine-cliff and Kingston Point, caught a fish tagged by the national fisheries at Washington, D. C.

"I turned the tag over to Fred DeWitt, game warden," Naccarato told a Freeman reporter, "and soon I expect to receive word concerning the history of the fish."

Naccarato said it was the first "tagged fish" he ever picked up in his nets over the 10 year period he has been catching shad and selling it at his place near Bath Beach.

"Shad are running light now," Naccarato said, "and added that this season's catch was far below that of 1937. Cold weather caused a late run up the river from the ocean and prevented fishermen from taking in big hauls."

Discussing shad fishing, Naccarato said that during one of the fish in the Hudson after June 15 is a latter. "Sometimes we catch a small one in our baitish nets," he informed, "but never have we run across a full grown shad."

Shad, the fisherman said, make their way up the Hudson from the Atlantic ocean and go as far north as Hudson to spawn.

Interlocutory Decree.

An interlocutory decree of divorce has been granted by Justice Sydney P. Foster in an action for divorce brought by Ruth E. Cowan against Russell W. Cowin.

Police H. Houghtaling appeared for the plaintiff. The action was tried at Monticello on April 22. The parties were united in marriage at Cold Springs on September 27, 1924. Acts upon which the complaint was made are alleged to have taken place in Newburgh and at Iroquois Corners Hotel in 1937. Testimony in that of 1937. Cold weather caused a late run up the river from the ocean and prevented fishermen from taking in big

Constipated? You Should Get at the Cause!

Lots of people think they can't be "regular" without frequent trips to the medicine chest. "I'll just dose up and get it over," they say. But doctors know they don't "get it over" until they get at the cause of the trouble.

Chances are it is simply to find the cause if you eat only what most people do—meal, fat, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves it with "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If that fits you, your ticket to a crunchy breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains 12 "bulky" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B.

Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

PRIZED AUTO TAGS GRANTED CAREFULLY

But in Ohio 1,778 Citizens Got a "No. 1" License.

Washington.—In only three states, Oregon, South Carolina and Iowa, does the plain citizen have an even chance of getting a license plate No. 1 to dignify his car, according to a survey published by the American Automobile association.

In Iowa, 99 "1" plates are distributed, going to the first applicant in each county. Early birds also get South Carolina's 40. In Oregon, the solitary "1," along with many other low numbers, is assigned by lot.

Twenty-one states baffle all aspirants to the coveted number by assigning it to the governor, and four others—New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, and Utah—simply do not issue No. 1 plates.

Ohio, on the other hand, by an ingenious combination of letters, manages to issue 1,778 plates bearing the prime number. All of these, however, have been reserved permanently to the present owners since 1935.

In seven states, assignment of the low number par excellence has become a political perquisite. In New Jersey, 21 are issued, each going to a state senator from the respective counties. In Washington, assignment is made by county auditors, treasurers, assessors and other officials.

Missouri's No. 1 tag has been held by the same person for 20 years, and in Massachusetts, Minnesota, and Rhode Island, license tag patricians have kept the number for several years.

In the District of Columbia, a "1" is issued, which goes to the president of the board of district commissioners.

Memorial.

In loving memory of Mae Cranton Douglas, who departed this life eight years ago today.

"I know thy cross is heavy laden, But hear me, carry on— And when you come into my Father's Mansions You shall wear a crown."

numbers presented a colorful picture. The entire group of children then sang two spring songs, led by Miss Quimby. The second was written especially for the occasion by Miss Drille and Miss Clinton and was sung the better of the two. The fifth grade boys and girls from Schools 4, 5 and 8, who wore the most attractive costumes on the field, gave the folk dance "Capitoli Jinks." The boys wore blue and red uniforms and the girls were dressed in orange and blue dresses with full skirts and large hats.

The next game that took the entire field was volleyball, in which the seventh and eighth grade boys from all eight schools participated.

Tumbling Club.

Then came the hit of the afternoon, the Tumbling Club of School No. 1, dressed as clowns in white suits dotted with gay colored circles of various sizes. Two clowns with faces made up with white, green, blue and red acted as head clowns and laid out the mats and called directions. At the end one clown dove through a large paper hoop which two of the others were holding. One of the prettiest dances was The Lancers, a square dance given by the boys and girls of the seventh and eighth grades of all schools. Calls were given by Miss Bradburn by means of the speaker attached to the piano and also carried the music to all parts of the field.

Traditional Dance

After another selection by the band the fifth grade girls of School 5 and 7 gave the traditional May Day dance, Sellinkers' Round in which the girls were dressed in traditional costumes with colored dresses, aprons, kerchiefs and mop-caps. A platform had been raised at one side of the field for the Tumbling Club and onto this platform came boys and girls dressed in gay yellow and black costumes, as the social dancing class of School 6 prepared to give a special number, the Pirate Quadrille. The culminating feature and perhaps one of the most spectacular was the May Pole dances, which concluded the program. The two winds used by the dancers who were the sixth grade girls from all schools were Brand and Spider Web. Particularly attractive was the May Pole with red and white streamers, when the pole began to fall, the girls dressed in white dresses with a wreath of flowers on their heads divided themselves into two sections, one section taking two streamers and continuing the dance and the other section of girls clustered around the May Pole in the center of the circle and holding it steady. The girls in the center made the picture most attractive.

Mrs. Craig Speaks

During an intermission in the program Mrs. Craig, president of the Federated Parent-Teacher Association addressed the crowd and thanked all those who had helped make the first May Day so successful. A collection was taken to help defray the cost of costumes which had been borne by the federation. Food concessions did a brisk business.

The medical department also was on hand with a first aid station but fortunately no such service was needed except by a few boys who hampered their fingers while putting up equipment. Under the able direction of the equipment committee the fields were cleared in record time as each new demonstration was to take place. So successful was the May Day and so well was it received that it is hoped that another such venture by the Elementary Schools will be undertaken next year.

Concert Group Ends Campaign

The Cooperative Concert Association of Ulster County has just successfully closed its third membership campaign for the selling of membership tickets for the coming season of 1938-39. The sale has been most satisfactory financially, practically all of the old members renewing their subscriptions.

Next year's concerts will include for the first concert, Ezra Raehlin, phenomenal young pianist with Marjorie Edwards, brilliant young violin virtuoso; second concert, Charles Kuhlman, American operatic tenor, the sensation of two continents, third program, Dorothy Crawford, monologist, one of the three greatest in this country; and fourth, the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra.

Mountaineers Seek Boy

Pine Knot, Cal. May 12 (AP)—Scores of mountaineers combed the wooded slopes around Big Bear valley today for 2-year-old David Baumgarten, who wandered away from a country store. An Indian tracker led a torchlight procession for the missing child last night. The boy and his mother had been accompanying his father, Leon O. Baumgarten, a food company representative, yesterday on a sales trip through the San Bernardino mountains.

"I understand that you have now reached a point in your statement of our common law where there remain only a few, though important, subjects which usefully can be restated at this time. Permit me to congratulate you on that which you have already accomplished. I hope that nothing will prevent your carrying on the restatement until it is complete."

"In my letter to your annual meeting in 1936 I ventured to express the hope that, having produced a model code of criminal procedure, you would find yourselves in the position to undertake further work in the field of criminal law and administration. I again wish to emphasize the importance of such work. The seriousness of our crime problem in this country and the deficiencies in our administration of the criminal law rightly cause laymen to look to such an organization as yours to give direction and leadership."

Closio Bow to Kyanize in City League Game by 5 to 4

After waiting half an hour for the sun to sink beneath the tree, the Jacobson shirt plant, the Kyanize Club and the Closio A. C. resumed their City League game. The Painters winning by the narrow margin of 5-4 as darkness enveloped the Athletic Field.

The Kyanizers moved into the last of the fourth trailing 1-4, but dashed through with the necessary runs they needed on two hits, pitched bases on balls and errors committed in bunches. In the last of the fourth, the Closio, issued in three runs, and had the bases loaded, but the Grocers refused leaving their runners on the bases.

Following the last Kyanize run, the last of the fourth inning, Bill Murphy, umpire behind the plate, called the game on account of darkness.

Woodstock Auto Speedway Race Plans Materialize

Woodstock, May 12.—Plans are rapidly materializing for the mid-summer motor races to be held in the Woodstock Legion Speedway on May 29.

Entries and inquiries have been received from many states by William West, president of the organization promoting the project. Mr. West spent Sunday in Albany, where he contacted a number of entries.

Among the Albany entrants are William DeMosh, whose car has a special Indian motor; E. L. Blodgett, a 77 Willys; John C. Barnett, two cars, one of them an Indian. Many more entries are expected from Albany as there are yet two weeks for entries to be made. Besides these there are cars from Woodstock, owned by William West, John Peper, and Gregory Lindin. From East Hartford a car has been entered by Jack Franklin, from Ellenville a car by Joe Goldsmith, and one from New Paltz by Louis Yess. The last two mentioned spent Sunday here trying out the quarter mile track which is nearing completion. This week-end several Albany cars are to be here for a tryout of the track.

Events will start at 11:30 a. m. on May 29, with the main events made up of cars qualifying in the elimination heats.

Following the first meet similar ones are scheduled for every other Sunday, with special events for holiday week-ends.

Melton One Reason for Early Season Run Away of the Giants

By SID FEDER.

Associated Press Sports Writer.

Meet the idiosyncrasy. He not only has the temperament, he even looks like one, this Chief Melton, the Giants' sophomore southpaw who's standing National League batter on their ears.

He's built on the general proportions of a beanpole, is Melton, stretching about six-foot-six straight up from his size 12½, and his most distinguishable features are a pair of out-sized ears. But man, can he pitch!

Nothing riles him. Not even as nifty a needler as Boiling Bolly Grimes, one of the better goat-getters, disturbs Melton. In fact it's doubtful if Cliff—the boys have tagged him Mickey Mouse and Mountain Music and String Beans—even realizes they're trying to rile him. He has less imagination than a pancake (well-done) and he pays less attention, if that's possible, than his cool, calm, and collected southpaw mate, King Carl Hubbell.

As a result, Cliff today is big league baseball's No. 1 elbow of the year in the matter of games won and lost, with an unbeaten run of six straight. It's one of the chief reasons Bill Terry's terrific Torriers are making somewhat of an early season runaway of the National League race, what with the Chicago Cubs showing signs of coming apart at the seams.

Looks Like N. Y. Series.

And, with the Yankees in first place in the American League pennant parade as the result of their 4-1 win over Cleveland's collapsible Indians yesterday, the whole situation looks like things are on the way toward the third straight championship monopoly for little old New York, despite

Jones Dairy Loses Game to Tavern Nine at Saugerties

Several costly errors and erratic base running proved costly to the Jones Dairy of the City League at Cantine Memorial Field, Saugerties last evening where they dropped a 6-4 decision to the strong M. & F. Tavern team.

After scoring four runs in the first inning the "Milkmen" fell apart for remainder of the game and were completely handcuffed by Charlie Buykens, Saugerties twiler. J. Berardi was safe on Desmond's error to start the game and went to second on the overthrow of first base. After Zady struck out Schatzel drove out the first of his three doubles scoring Berardi. Celuch tripled scoring Schatzel and scored a moments later on M. Berardi's single. Hopper fouled to Knauer but T. Berardi was safe on Desmond's second overthrow of first and scored on Tiano's single.
